"The Union Party."

In the last Presidential election there was a party known as the Union Party, which supported [illegible] Bell and Everett [illegible] The men composing this party are, with rare exceptions [illegible] the Union [illegible] Brooks [illegible] New York [illegible] New York.

[illegible] the Presidency [illegible] the Constitution [illegible] the Union and the laws, and the Union one and indivisible [illegible] All who are its true friends are serving the freest and best Government the wisdom of man ever established, and all who are its foes deserve disgrace and defeat. We cannot change the past, but politically we can for a season bury it, forget it, postpone its issues or regard all its accounts as balanced. These have been my views from the first hour [illegible] the enemy's guns guided by [illegible] hands fired upon our flag and the [illegible] fort in Charleston harbor, in April last, and God helping us, they are not likely to be changed till our Government is maintained, the Union restored, the public property surrendered, and the Banner of the Republic everywhere respected.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.
ERASTUS BROOKS.

THE ESTATE OF JOHN A. WASHINGTON.—An application [illegible] to Provost Judge Freeze, of Alexandria, to have the Government take possession of the late John A. Washington, at Mount Vernon, for the purpose of securing the claims of the Union men. When John A. Washington left for the rebel army he placed the care of the estate in the hands of one Turner. Turner, however, soon caught the secession fever, and went down to Occoquan Creek to join the rebels there. Nearly all the slaves were either taken away or ran away. The army captured all the horses and cows, and only one able-bodied man, a slave named Gabriel Johnson, was left on the place, with a few superannuated contrabands. Gabriel was, however, true to his trust, and worked on the place, as best he could—hiring help, selling grain, paying claims, and acting as general agent. There is now standing on the farm one hundred and fourteen acres of corn, of which Gabriel has sold one hundred acres at ten dollars per acre, to be cut, measured, husked and carried off at the expense of the purchaser. Judge Freeze complimented Gabriel for his faithfulness and promised to see him taken care of.

Government will undoubtedly take possession of such estates as this, and of all property whatsoever belonging to men who have joined the rebel army, and [illegible] and pay the claims of Union men against them. The house of one rebel Perry at Alexandria now occupied by Provost Marshal Griffith, and which is just as the family left it in their haste, including their slave servants, is [illegible] one of many similar [illegible] that have no claimants but the Government. It is a [illegible] fact that in this house are [illegible] portraits of Mr Buchanan.

GEN McCLELLAN'S WAR POLICY.—The Philadelphia Inquirer says that at [illegible] recent dinner given by Gen McClellan he is said to have remarked to a guest that there was no power on earth, neither that of the press nor of politicians, that should cause him to swerve a hair's breadth from the policy which he had adopted in relation to the present war. Availing himself of all military wisdom that is in the possession of the officers around him, together with his own mature experience, he has to the best of his ability adopted a plan of warfare to which he intends to adhere most rigidly. Knowing as he does that the fate of [illegible] is in his hands, and that a single blunder might forever estrange him from the support and confidence of the people, he has resolved [illegible] purpose and [illegible] of all the [illegible] and to [illegible] at the time when his own plans [illegible] that the [illegible] should be struck.

TERRIBLE DISASTER IN FRANCE.—The foreign papers give accounts of a terrible casualty in the department of Gard, France. In consequence of a powerful storm—the bursting of a water spout, according to some statements—the [illegible] mine was flooded and the sides fell in, burying all the working men.—An explosion of gas took place at the same time, by which a portion of the mine was blown up. The number of men missing, and considered as killed by the accident, is nearly three hundred. There is no probability that but a very few can be got out alive.

A NOBLE SENTIMENT, WORTHY THE NOTE OF THE YOUNG MEN OF OREGON!—Gov. Sprague of Rhode Island, recently said

"The glorious privilege now exists of doing some real good for one's country [illegible] the time may never present such another occasion."

Young men of Oregon! recollect this patriotic sentence, when you are called to the polls at the coming election!

The Eugene Republican of Saturday says that the river was again rising with the prospect of another flood

To the Republicans of Oregon.

The undersigned were instructed at the last State Convention to Convene the Republicans of the State at their next meeting at Eugene City

Events that have transpired since the meeting of the last State Convention could not then be foreseen and issues are now presented to the people paramount to all issues that have heretofore divided political parties

While we claim no right to dissolve the Republican organization nor do we see any cause to recant any political principle heretofore held by us yet believing that the vital issue now before the people is the preservation or destruction of our institutions, we are unwilling to do anything to distract the Union sentiment in the coming canvass, and therefore have deemed it unwise to call a party convention with a view to the support of a distinctively Republican ticket

In taking this course we have been guided by the expressed wishes of Republicans throughout the State, and an honest desire on our part, to avoid any barrier to the hearty support of a Union ticket by the loyal voters of the State without regard to former political differences

History verifies the fact that the Fathers of our common country, supposed that they had cemented a perpetual Union they are only traitors who have now attempted to overthrow it we therefore call upon one and all to the support of the priceless inheritance bequeathed to us by the founders of this Republic He that neglects for any trivial cause at this time, to testify his devotion to our country, to a government that has made us the most prosperous and favored people on the face of the Globe, is not worthy the name of American citizen! We therefore trust to the intelligence and patriotism of the loyal people of this State, to show by unanimity at the coming convention and election their abhorrence of secession and treason, their love of country, its prosperity and perpetuity

We therefore earnestly recommend to the Republican voters of the State, that without regard to party, they should in the coming canvass, heartily unite in nominating and supporting a ticket composed of Union men who stand the test embraced in the call which is herewith published

H W CORBETT,
E D SHATTUCK,
W C JOHNSON
Republican State Central Committee
Portland, Jan'y 8th, 1862

Union State Convention

We publish to day a call for a Union Convention It is signed by the Republican State Central Committee and by many distinguished democrats of this city and county

This call is right There are now but two parties in this State One of them is for sustaining the Constitution and Government—the other, with all its pretences, is against both Our Constitution and Government are of priceless value to true Americans! And it is the duty of such to discard all the divisions of the past, and stand together in a solid column for their maintenance

Hereafter, when the question is asked How did you stand when unprincipled rebels sought to destroy the Government of our fathers? happy will it be for those who can show a clean record

We have no doubt of the character of the response that will come from the Union citizens of Oregon in answer to this call. They will hold their township and county meetings and will send the full number of the delegates to which they are entitled to the State Convention and that Convention will nominate the candidates who will be triumphantly elected by the people at the next election

FROM SOUTHERN OREGON TO THE SALMON RIVER MINES.—The Jacksonville Sentinel believes that a nearer and better route can be found to the Salmon river mines from Northern California and Southern Oregon, than by the way of Portland and the Columbia river It may be so But the fact is not yet proved If we could find it also [illegible] we could materially change the [illegible] that now exists [illegible] repented [illegible] impassable [illegible] We think [illegible] South if they wish to take a [illegible] present at least will be [illegible] Portland and the Columbia river

A CALL TO UNION MEN.—A call for a precinct Union meetings in Lane county is made in the Eugene Republican of the 11th It is signed by Union men without regard to their political antecedents The precinct meetings are called for the first Monday in February The County meeting of precinct Delegates is to be held in Eugene on the 4th Monday of February Thus the Union men of Lane county are the first in the field Speed the ball that has thus been started

The Republican fully endorses, as we are sure it would this movement—as the course to ensure complete victory to the Union cause at the June election

It is stated that the Government has contracted with parties in Philadelphia for the construction of an iron-clad steam frigate, and the laying of the keel has been commenced at Kensington The vessel will be two hundred and forty feet long fifty eight feet beam and thirty feet depth of hold and her armament is to consist of sixteen of the largest rifled cannon

CITY.

DEATH OF MIKE MITCHELL.—At an early hour yesterday morning, Mike Mitchell, the minstrel, and well known as the best jig dancer ever on this coast, was found in the yard of a house where he had been lodging, two doors below Multnomah Engine house, laying in the snow, and life nearly extinct. A physician was called in, and restoratives applied, but without avail, and he expired shortly after being taken into the house. An inquest was held, and the verdict was that the deceased came to his death by freezing, while under the influence of liquor. It appears that on Saturday night Mitchell, while drunk, abused some of his fellow lodgers, and on Sunday night, when he asked admittance, the inmates, thinking that his admission would be followed by still further abuse, denied him, and being stupefied with liquor, he sunk down on the spot, and froze to death. Mitchell was a gentleman when sober, and possessed of many fine qualities, and was well liked by his comrades, but his love for strong drink overcame him, and like it does thousands of others, dragged him to an early grave. And thus died the wandering minstrel. It will be a long time before his like is seen again in this country. He will be buried to-day.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Long before the appointed hour, yesterday, for the preliminary examination of George Rose for his murderous attack upon a lady, last Sunday, the court-room was densely crowded with spectators, so much so, that at one time it was thought that the floor would give way. A short time after one o'clock, the prisoner, attended by the marshal and his deputies, made his appearance. Mr. Page appeared for the State, and Mr. Logan for the prisoner. Mr. Logan stated to the Court that he would waive an examination on behalf of his client, and asked the Court to fix the amount of bail required to be given. Recorder Risley fixed the sum at twenty five hundred dollars, in default of which the prisoner was remanded to jail to await his trial at the next term of the Circuit Court, which will be held in March next.

COMMENDABLE PRECAUTION.—Mr. Webber, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department,—the newly elected Chief not having yet qualified as such, was taking the round yesterday loosening the covers on the different cisterns which had been frozen tight, so that none of the Fire Companies should be detained in case of a fire.

MAIL FOR VANCOUVER.—A gentleman started on foot yesterday morning carrying a mail bag for Vancouver. He intended to cross on the ice.

☞ Cohen has removed his Watches and Jewelry goods to the store on Front Street, one door south of Alder Street.

☞ Miller & Kuehn, Watchmakers and Jewelers, have opened a fine stock of goods on the Corner of Alder and First streets.

The Roman Catholic Bishop of Iowa has addressed the following patriotic letter to the Adjutant General of that State:

"DUBUQUE, Sept. 17.—Honored Sir and Dear Sir:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your esteemed favor of the 16th inst., and agree with you in saying that the cause of the Union is the cause of law, of order and justice. You are aware that I ever avoid all matters of a political nature as foreign to my sacred duties; yet in this present hour of trial, when the honor and the happiness of our nation are at stake, when some prejudiced mind may construe my silence into a disrespect for you, whose friendship I highly prize, or into a criminal opposition to our national government—the government of the United States, the only one to which I owe fealty—it may not be parting too far from my usual course to say that my feelings and sentiments are for the Union; and though peace is now the darling object of my ambition, yet I would not consent to purchase peace at the sacrifice of principle. With the deepest respect, yours most sincerely,

†CLEMENT SMYTH,
Bishop of Dubuque.

To N. B. Baker, Esq., Adjutant General, etc., Clinton, Iowa."

INSTRUCTIONS TO GEN. SHERMAN.—On going South, Gen. Sherman received the following instructions [illegible] hands from the Secretary of War: "You will avail yourself of the services of any persons, whether or not fugitives from labor, who may offer themselves to the National Government, and employ them in such services as they may be fit for, either as ordinary employees, or if special circumstances seem to require it, in any other capacity, with such organization in squads, companies, or otherwise, as you may deem fit to the service; this, however, not to be a general arming of them for military service. Loyal masters are to be assured that Congress will provide just compensation for the loss of the services of the persons so employed."

Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country, as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma and the honorary ad eundem degree [illegible] as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for [illegible] extended labors. Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his main attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the [illegible] in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography the publishers [illegible] matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to [illegible] please enclose $10 in their letters and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. jan 26dawly

☞ Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges. Let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order. It should make a tight lock stitch, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton thread, or silk, directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should be able to make the tension greater or less on both the under and upper portion of its stitch, and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have a perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and in [illegible] work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk above or below to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam on the machine by tightening the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed, no other giving continuous contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order, neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

Great Public Works of France

In many respects, the Emperor of France is a noble fellow He intends to make his mark in the history of his country for good Notwithstanding the threatening aspect of affairs in Europe [illegible] is engaged in important national enterprises

The first of these [illegible] submarine telegraph connecting Europe with Africa In laying the wires or cable down between France and Algiers, they broke twice, but he persevered and is successful In the manufacture of cable for subversion, the French have made important discoveries which will be all important to similar enterprises hereafter

The second great work of France, the cutting through of the Alps, is now going on with every prospect of success Mont Cenis is the place selected for this work It will be traversed by a tunnel seven miles and a half in length, with a canal in the middle to let the water, leaking from the [illegible] run out Two thousand five hundred laborers are now employed in digging holes by means of a recently invented machine, moved by compressed atmosphere It is expected that the tunnel will be finished in about six years Its principal objects will be to [illegible] the ties which now exist between France and Italy, to bring Turin nearer to Paris, and by making the relations of the two countries and cities easier and more frequent, to [illegible] secure their mutual concurrence in all political and social events which the times keep in store This tunnel will abridge the distance which now separates Paris from Turin by one half, and once completed it will take only seventeen hours to go from one city to the other

The third great undertaking to which France is now applying her energy and power the cutting through of the Isthmus of Suez, is, according to the last information pushed on vigorously and promises to realize the expectations of the most sanguine friends of this great work Six thousand laborers are now engaged in the operation They are said to have discovered, on their way from the Nile to the Red Sea an Egyptian city buried under a bed of sand and a number of [illegible] crocodiles and mummies with their attending collection of instruments and papyrus This work will have the [illegible] result that of bringing the comparatively barbarous continent of Asia in direct communication with European civilization and of supplying science with new elements of researches, and perhaps the thinking world with new conclusions

The Romance of War —The Brooklyn (New York) Times is responsible for the following, showing how Captain Wilkes got even with John Slidell

Captain Wilkes, the bold and responsibility assuming commander of the San Jacinto, who caused a gun to be fired across the bows of the British steamer Trent, brought her to and relieved her of Mason and Slidell and their secretaries, is now about fifty six years of age Consequently, as Jack Bunsby would say, he was once younger than he is now Though every inch a sailor, and not often given to the melting mood, the blind god once sent one of his shafts clear through his rough sou' wester which found a lodgment in his honest heart The bow from which the shaft was sped hung in the eyes of a fair girl, and straightway the jolly tar fell head over ears in love He prosecuted his suit with vigor The girl was a lass who loved a sailor"—and so smiled upon him and consented to become his wife But the young sailor had a rival in the son of a respectable tallow chandler well to do called Slidell and young Slidell feeling considerably cut up by being cut out, refused to accept the mitten, but not having spunk enough to throw down the glove to his sailor rival contented himself with "pis ning" the mind of the stern parient of the fair one until he refused his consent to his daughter's marriage with the bold Charlie Wilkes and insisted upon her giving her hand to young Slidell which after many protestations and the customary amount of tears and hysterics she did, and became Mrs John Slidell The bold Charlie Wilkes did not peak and pine—or let his melancholy feed on his weather beaten cheeks but went to sea and smothered his grief in a tending to duty and sustaining the honor of his nation's flag, never seeing his 'lady lass' again, nor meeting his successful rival for her hand and heart, until he saw him standing a prisoner on board his ship a traitor to his country and a rebel against the flag the [illegible] st he had spent his life in defending Such is the romance of war We congratulate the bold Charles upon having at last got [illegible] than even"
